

Alexandria Gazette

WEDNESDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 12.

LOCAL NEWS.

For this section fair weather, slightly warmer, light to fresh westerly winds, becoming variable, with frosts in Virginia.

INTER-SEMINARY MISSIONARY ALLIANCE. As heretofore stated in the GAZETTE, on the 27th of this month, there will be in Alexandria one of the most important gatherings that has been held here for many years. Its delegates, to the number of three hundred, will come from parts of the country as remote as Maine and Chicago, or as Rochester and Atlanta. Its deliberations will concern the best interests of a large part of the world, and its decisions will have a direct bearing on the prosperity of other nations beside our own.

This important convention, which is entitled, "The Eighth Annual Convention of the Inter-Seminary Missionary Alliance," is composed of the theological students in the various Protestant churches in America, without regard to church ties. The Episcopalians laying aside their prayer book for the time, the Baptists forgetting immersion, the Presbyterians ignoring their Westminster Confession, the Methodists and the Congregationalists, the Lutheran and the German Reformed, delegates of these and other denominations, are gathered in this common platform and seek to arouse in themselves, in their various seminaries and in their churches, a zeal for mission work both at home and abroad, and to cultivate a love for Christians in whatever land they may be gathered. While the great part of the session will be occupied by the students themselves, reading papers on various previously selected subjects and discussing the points raised in these essays, distinguished preachers, men whose praise is in all the churches, have been invited to be present and have consented to preach and deliver addresses. The sessions will be held in Christ Church, which the vestry has tendered the alliance for the occasion. Excitations will be sent to all the clergy in the vicinity and in Washington to be present, and the church people of Alexandria will have a reason of national religious privilege. This is the first session of this convention in the South. Its former meetings were in New Brunswick, Albany (near Pittsburgh), Chicago, Hartford, Princeton, Rochester and Oberlin, but, though we may not be able to show them as great growth as some of these cities, yet the historic associations of this Colonial town will, we doubt not, leave a charm of its own, and we have no fear but that after a taste of Virginia hospitality the delegates will feel that it was wise to hold their eighth convention "down in Dixie."

PERSONAL.—It will be a novel sight to see an American born boy sitting as a peer in the English House of Lords. But the direct living descendant in the oldest son line of the English house of Fairfax is the son of a Virginia farmer. The other day he was driving a mule team in a Loudoun county hayfield—Chicago Times. The gentleman referred to is Mr. Albert Fairfax, son of Dr. John Fairfax, but his driving a mule team in a hayfield is a myth. He inherited the title by the death of his uncle, Col. Charles Fairfax, of Maryland, who died in California a few years ago.

Cards are out for the marriage of Mr. Walter Bennett, of this city, and Miss Annie E. Mitchell, of Pittsburgh, which is to take place at the residence of the bride's mother, on the 26th inst.

Miss Rosa D. Bendheim, of this city, and Mr. Max Fisher, of Washington, will be married this evening at the Jewish Synagogue, on Washington street, at 7 o'clock. A reception at Mr. Fisher's will follow. Mr. Fisher is the book keeper of the Boston store, Washington, in which Miss Bendheim was until recently a clerk.

Dr. Albert Fairfax, who has been quite ill for the past two weeks, is rapidly improving.

Surgeon Norwood Suter, U. S. A., son of Rev. H. Suter, left Washington to-day for Fort McKimber, Wyoming, to which garrison he has recently been assigned.

FOREIGN JURORS.—Deputy Sergeant B. B. Smith, who yesterday went to Fredericksburg for a special jury to try the case in the Corporation Court of Mary J. Young et al. vs. the City Council, for damage to property on account of drainage, returned this morning with the following named gentlemen: J. S. Tolliver, A. H. Wallace, W. H. Smith, J. W. Wroten, J. Monroe, W. G. Ballard, J. J. Berry, Thos. Wood, O. J. Doggett, Chas. Reese, A. Beck, E. M. Campbell, R. E. Boyce, Jos. Hall, J. M. Griffin, H. H. Johnston, W. G. Turner, Abraham Cox, F. M. Hamilton, J. A. English. On their arrival here they proceeded at once to the court room, where the first named twelve were selected as the jury. The jury was considered the most intelligent looking body of men that have occupied the box for a long time.

Deputy Sergeant Smith left for Fauquier county to-day to summon another jury to try the case of the Commonwealth vs. John Curran to-morrow.

OPERA HOUSE.—To-morrow night the Templeton Opera Company begin an engagement at the Opera House, producing Gilbert and Sullivan's well-known opera, the "Mikado," with Miss Hattie Starr as "Pith-Sing," Miss Lulu Stevens as "Yum Yum," Mr. Alf. C. Whelan as "Ko-Ko," and Mr. Charles L. Harris as the "Mikado." The remainder of the cast are well-known operatic people, and with an augmented chorus and orchestra the citizens are promised a fine entertainment. There are thirty-three ladies and gentlemen in the company.

CORPORATION COURT.—Judge N. B. Meade presiding.—Com. vs. Dennis Anderson, colored, indicted for malicious shooting with intent to kill his wife, in February last, jury: plea of guilty and verdict of six months in jail and fine of $200.

Mary J. Young vs. City Council, suit for $500 for damages claimed to have been done her property by reason of improper drainage; jury and case in progress.

The civil docket will be called to-morrow at 10 o'clock.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was clear and cool with one prisoner and four lodgers at the station house. The only case before the Mayor this morning was that of John Peyton, arrested by Officer Bettis, for being drunk. He was fined $1.

It was not Mr. Frank Beach, of this city, who was fined $5 for disorderly conduct on Monday last, but Frank Beach of Washington.

ACCIDENTS.—A letter has been received here from Copake, N. Y., saying that Mrs. Charles Whiteley, of this city, who is visiting friends there, fell down a flight of stairs on Sunday last and broke her leg.

FOOT CRUSHED.—Mr. Thomas Pettitt, car inspector of the Alexandria and Fredericksburg Railway, while engaged in coupling cars on the long siding near the graveyard, about half past 3 o'clock this afternoon, fell on the track and his left foot was almost severed by the cars passing over it. He was taken to his home in the western part of the city, where medical attendance was secured.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Andrew Jackson, a well known colored blacksmith, of this city, died last night at his home on Alfred street, between Duke and Wolfe, last night. He was apparently well yesterday evening but about 10 o'clock was taken with violent cramps and died in a few hours.

DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE.—The city democratic committee held a meeting last night to make arrangements for conducting the legislative campaign. Most of the members of the committee were present, and the outlook for democratic success is said to be most encouraging.

PROPERTY SALE.—Mr. E. Francis has sold to George Lane a lot on the west side of Alfred street, between Oronoco and Pendleton, for $115.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

A crossing has been laid by Superintendent of Police Dobbie at the Southern intersection of Wolfe and Fairfax streets.

Thomas, the 16 year old son of Mr. Thos. Reese, a well known bridge builder of this city, died at his father's residence, on north Pitt street, at an early hour this morning, of typhoid fever.

Dennis Anderson, the young colored man who, while in a fit of jealousy, shot his wife, who was on her way to a ball in this city one night in February last, was today, in the Corporation Court, fined $300 and sent to jail for six months.

The case of Mrs. Mary J. Young against the city for damages to her property on Cameron street, on account of drainage, has occupied most of the time of the Corporation Court to-day. The case is being heard before a Fredericksburg jury.

Mr. J. W. Lockwood, cashier of the National Bank of Virginia, at Richmond, has gone to Pittsburgh, Pa., to attend the convention of the National Bankers' Association. Mr. Lockwood is a vice-president of the association. He is a native and long time resident of this city, and says when he makes a fortune he is coming back here to live, as he loves it better than any spot on earth.

A stray horse and buggy was taken up by Mr. A. Studds, across Hunting Creek this evening and on being brought to this city was claimed by a gentleman from Washington from whom the horse had run away.

When all so-called remedies fail, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures.

NOTICE.—Members of Alexandria Council, No. 627, Royal Arcanum, can pay their assessments until further notice at the office of B. F. Peske, corner King and Pitt streets. oct11 3d B. W. NALLS, Collector.

LOST AND FOUND.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

The Western Union directors have ratified the purchase of the Baltimore and Ohio telegraph.

Frank James, the outlaw, brother of the late Jesse James, is reported to be dying at Dallas, Texas.

President Cleveland left St. Paul yesterday for Minneapolis, where he remained a few hours, and then left for Omaha.

At the Newark (N. J.) election yesterday Hayes, dem., was elected mayor by about 2,000 majority. The republicans retain control of the common council.

The trial of Walter L. Kelton, of Maine, for felonious assault upon Miss Henrietta S. Powell, of Virginia, on the 4th of July last in Baltimore, is in progress in that city.

The second game of the base ball championship series between the Detroit (League) and St. Louis (Association) clubs was won yesterday by the Detroit by a score of 5 to 3. Each club has now won a game.

The municipal election in Chattanooga, Tenn., yesterday, resulted in the election of John B. Nicklin, a democrat and an ex-federal soldier, as mayor, by 116 majority, and the election of the entire republican aideman ticket by about 500 majority.

The Navy Department is informed that while the Quinnebang was at Gibraltar, her officers and crew saved a British naval vessel from destruction by fire. The Galtz had caught fire, and the flames were beyond the control of the crew, when boats were sent from the Quinnebang, and the ship was saved.

The Clyde line steamer George H. Stout, running between Philadelphia, Norfolk and Newberne, N. C., was burned at Newberne Sunday night. Her cargo consisted of scum-bone freight. The steamer had to be sunk to extinguish the fire, and her damage is estimated at twelve to fifteen thousand dollars. The loss on the cargo is not given. During and for some time after the war the Stout was a regular packet between this port and Philadelphia.

In his recent interview with Mr. Powderly, Cardinal Gibbons could scarcely find language strong enough to express his detestation of anarchism, and in a letter subsequently written he also pronounced condemnation upon the boycott as involving an infringement upon the just rights of others and, therefore, not to be tolerated. The position of the Church is eminently conservative and esgations. The face of the Holy See, as of all Christian churches, of all Christian men and women and good citizens, is firmly set against means to an end that threatens society with disorder and the State with revolution.

"Sleep breathes at last from out thee, my little patient boy." Oh! yes, certainly. But that child would have cried all night with his foot, if it had not been for a timely bottle of Salvation Oil. Only twenty five cents expended brought him rest.
